The dread and foreboding which almost invariably comes over a young wife, just after the advent of the first little darling who shall call her mother, is one of the most natural burdens which civilization has imposed upon the privilege of motherhood.

There ought not to be such an overwhelming sense of depression and weakness as a woman feels at this time and there would not be if she was in a perfectly strong and healthy condition. In thousands of cases motherhood has been divested of all its dangers and a large proportion of its pain by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is the most marvelous remedy ever discovered for restoring complete organic health and strength to the delicate special structure involved in motherhood. Taken early during the prospective time it makes the mother strong, energetic and cheerful and carries her through the period of trial with comparative comfort and ease. It increases the baby's natural constitutional vigor and adds to the joys of motherhood the supreme satisfaction of a strong, robust, lusty infant. "Favorite Prescription" is also the best supportive tonic for nursing mothers. Every expectant mother will appreciate what is said by Mrs. Fannie M. Harry, of Galesburg, Ill., (56 Churchill Ave.). In a letter to Dr. Pierce she writes: "I have used your medicine in my family for a long time, and find them to be all that is claimed. I cannot recommend them too highly. My confinement was made easy, as I experienced none of the pains such as others have said by me, and the first born the one that mothers fear so much. Besides, the medicine has helped me in many other ways. I would recommend all afflicted women to try Dr. Pierce's valuable medicine, and thus become well and strong."

NEVADA WINS AGAIN.

Stanford Goes down With a Score of 22 to 0

The football contest between Nevada University and Stanford on the University grounds, yesterday was one of the events of which Reno may well feel proud.

A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered to witness the game. The crisp cold air and the pleasant sunshine added much to the success of the game.

At 2:15 the umpire's whistle sounded and Stanford, having the kick off, sent the pig skin flying to Nevada's 15-yard line; Bruke receiving runs in a short distance and the ball was down for a first scrimmage. During the first twenty minutes the contest was a hot one; Stanford gained possession of the ball once or twice, but made little gain. Nevada slowly worked down the field until the ball was on Stanford's 5-yard line, when, by a supreme effort, Hayes of Nevada broke over the line for the first touch down; Keddle failed to kick the goal and the score 5 to 0 in Nevada's favor.

Another touch down was made in this half, and when time for the first half was called the score stood 11 to 0 with Stanford on the little end.

In the second half Hill, one of Stanford's first eleven men, was substituted as full back. In this half, Nevada rushed Stanford's center, run her ends, and broke through her tackles; time after time Nevada struck Stanford's line with continued success. Evans of Nevada deserves special commendation for his heavy work in this line. Nevada made many bad fumbles causing the surrender of the ball to the Stanford on several occasions. In the second half as in the first, two touch downs were made by Nevada, and the game ended with the score 22-0 in Nevada's favor.

It is one of the especially remarkable features of the game that the same score which crowned the victory of the University of California vs. Stanford's first eleven on November 24th also goes down as the score which marks the victory of Nevada over Stanford's second eleven.

This closes the football season and Nevada may well be proud of the record made in a series of four games against the best teams on the coast, our college losing but one, the others being gained by splendid scores. Our University has defeated the best academic team on the coast and placed herself third in the colleges, they now standing, first, Berkeley; second, Stanford; third, Nevada.

Governor Sadler.

A JOURNAL reporter interviewed Governor Sadler at Carson yesterday and among other things the Governor said: "I am now elected to the responsible position of Chief Executive of this State and while during the heat of the campaign, I was charged with remarks not only detrimental to Washoe county and her interests, but it was even claimed that I had asserted a pronounced enmity to Washoe and her people and to the State institutions located within her boundaries, now that the contest is over, I desire it to be thoroughly understood that no such feeling exists in my heart, but on the contrary I shall be ready and willing at all times as far as my influence and judgment can be used, consistent with my official position, to exert every energy I may possess in aiding the interests of the people of Washoe, also the progress of the State University, and see that the unfortunates in the Hospital for Mental Diseases, are carefully cared for and humanely treated. In fact Washoe shall receive the same consideration as any other part of the State and her citizens need have no fear but what any reasonable claim presented, or favor asked, will receive prompt consideration."

We Shake.

General Kelley, after pumping the people of Washoe county full of free silver wind, consisting of "paramount issue," "crime of '73," "time honored ratio of 16 to 1," "vote the silver ticket and help free coinage along," for years, has sold his interest in the JOURNAL to Hon. Wm. Webster & Son, and the paper will hereafter be conducted by those gentlemen. Judge Webster is a man we esteem very highly, and we have no doubt the most friendly relations will exist between the JOURNAL and Gazette, under the management of Webster & Son.—Gazette.

The JOURNAL proprietors cheerfully accept the hand so frankly extended, and despite political differences, most sincerely hope that no other discord will ever mar the harmony of the relations between the two papers. In the language of the immortal Richard Swiveller, "May the wing of friendship never fade nor moult a feather."

Closing Notice.

On and after December 1, 1898, we, the undersigned butchers of Reno, Nevada, do hereby agree to close our respective places of business every evening at 6 o'clock (except Saturday), the above agreement to remain in force until April 1, 1899.

Thyes will set a splendid Sunday lunch to-day. The latest of hot and fancy drinks and all of the novelties of the trade can be found at his place.

A Carson man's wife who attacked him with a mop handle, pleaded the prize fighters' ethics by telling her that she would have to get a reputation before he would fight her.

Captain W. L. Cox, who was reported to have accepted a position in the regular army, is now said to be visiting relatives in California and will accept a position with an insurance company.

Prospects are brightening up on the Comstock. Men are being put to work every day and there is a better feeling prevailing in all quarters. The outlook for deep mining has created a new life and the people are greatly encouraged.

If you are a married man don't let your wife worry about dinner to-day, but take the whole family to the Riverside for Sunday dinner. It will save work and cost no more than having dinner at home.

There are over a baker's dozen saw-bone applicants for Superintendent of the Insane Asylum—excuse us, we mean the Nevada Hospital for Mental Diseases. The patriotic pill dispensers hail from all over the State.

It is reported that the vote of Captain Linscott's company has reached Carson and that the State authorities have refused to receive it. It looks to a man up a tree that the proper thing for the authorities to have done would be to receive the vote of our soldier boys and let the courts decide upon the legality of counting it.

There was a turkey famine at Tascorara Thanksgiving. But there was plenty of corned beef and cabbage, which the God-fearing Tascorarans most thankfully bolted, and sang psalms of praise for not being obliged to astonish their stomachs with truck which is common as doughnuts in every well regulated family in Reno.

The rumor that the Dexter Mining Company at Tascorara has secured an option for a controlling interest in the Young American East is denied by those in a position to know. The Young American East is one of the latest locations in that district and has always been considered a valuable property although it has been but imperfectly prospected. It is a gold mine carrying but little silver.

Probably there was no family reunion on Thanksgiving day in Reno that will compare, in point of numbers at least, with that which assembled around the festive board at the residence of Mrs. Finlayson on Lake street. Mr. George Lyman and wife of Anaconda, Mr. M. Gillespie and family of Los Angeles, Robert Moore and wife and Frank Lee and Frank Lewis with their families. The assemblage numbered nineteen and was composed exclusively of lineal descendants of the hostess and their husbands.

E. D. Kelley and Nate Roff left yesterday morning for Carson. Nate returned on the evening train.

A correspondent of the Flaming Independent says: Chat Roberts, who was injured by jumping from a window of the Clairville hotel, has never recovered, and is now in a very dangerous condition at his home in Long Valley.

It is reported that the California Supreme Court has granted Ed and Frank Roberts of Long Valley a new trial. They were convicted in the Superior Court of Lassen county last Spring of grand larceny and sentenced to three years at San Quentin.

An exchange describes a hot tamale of the Indian Territory brand as "a molten peppercorn chicken croquette, covered with a coat of Indian meal and an overcoat of corn husk and steamed in a portable boiler—the result being a diabolical combination that tastes like a bonfire."

Harry Martell, not of the Merry Makers, but representing the well known and popular wholesale liquor house of Wilmerding & Company, San Francisco, arrived on yesterday morning's train from the west and continued on to Virginia returning here last night for a day's lay over. Harry as he is familiarly known, is one of the most popular commercial men on the road and always has a hearty greeting for all and a good story to tell.

Discovered by Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and two bottles, has absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes H. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby N. C. Trial bottles free S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store Regular size 50c and $1.00 Every bottle guaranteed.

If you want anything in our line, don't put it off till the last minute. Come now, lots of them say that you can get just as good work at the Riverside studio as you can in the city and it's so, to.

Harry Martell's Merry Makers

This popular combination appeared as the Opera House last evening in the comedy of "Wild Oats" and were greeted by a large audience. The play affords the opportunity of introducing a number of specialties and they were all good. She dancing, singing and bicycle riding were pleasing features and the audience showed its appreciation in hearty applause.

Gunpowder in Hunting.
A curious feature about this evolution in methods of hunting was the hesitation with which gunpowder was taken up by the great nobles. Not only did it take quite a century to familiarize hunters with it, but the evidence that has come down to us shows that the humble classes were the first to use it for shooting game. Maximilian, ardent sportsman that he was, tells us himself that he could shoot farther and with greater accuracy with his crossbow than his keeper could with the fire tube.

To prove this he tells us the well known story of a certain chamois standing at a distance of 200 fathoms, which after being pronounced at too far off by his henchman, who was armed with one of the first sporting firearms mentioned in print, comes tumbling down, pierced at the first attempt, by the emperor's bolt. From other sources we learn of strict measures being adopted to prevent poachers and "wood loafers" using firearms, and this at a period when princes still used the cumbersome crossbow and spear. It was only in the last quarter of the sixteenth century that firearms had ousted other weapons for certain forms of the chase, the deer battue being among the latter.—Fall Mall Magazine.

Smoking in Korea.
In Korea all men and women smoke. They begin early. The pipe is a brass bowl, with a reed stem four feet long and a brass, amber or glass mouthpiece. Accidents often occur from persons failing with a long pipe in the mouth, the stem of which is driven down the throat through the cheek or into the palate. During the "reform period," after the Japan-China war, long pipes were forbidden to the common people, and they turned to cigarettes, which have become rooted in the popular affection. Native cigarettes, which are of poor quality, sell for 1 cent gold for 20. Little cigars of cigarette size sell for 14 cents gold per 100.

American cigarettes are used exclusively in the palace, and thousands of them are smoked there. This makes them popular with the upper classes, and the consumption of them is very great. The best of them cost 1 cent gold each. The import duty on cigars and cigarettes is 20 per cent ad valorem; but, in spite of this, the American manufacturers are gradually coming into control of the market.—Chicago Times-Herald
